Peace to you! This weekend is the 100th anniversary of the establishment of World Mission Sunday. World Mission Sunday is an annual and worldwide celebration of the Catholic Church. On that day, a collection is taken up in every Catholic parish throughout the world and the funds are distributed to help missionaries in Catholic institutions (parishes, schools, hospitals, etc. . .) that work in the poorest areas of the world. This collection supports missionaries in over 1,150 mission territories. Please pray for those who labor daily in the Church's missions and make as much of a monetary gift as you are able. Pope Leo said, in his video message about World Mission Sunday, "Thank you for everything that you will do to help me help missionaries throughout the world."

Even though our diocese is not considered a "mission territory" in terms of financial resources, it is a missionary territory spiritually. There are so many people who live right next to us who do not know the love of Jesus for them. They don't know their dignity or destiny to be children of God and heirs of the Kingdom of heaven. They don't know that Jesus desires to save them through the Church He established. Our Catholic community of Our Lady of the Falls, and our diocese, are making a concerted effort to focus on mission, which first means conversion of our own hearts and minds. Either our structures, resources, efforts, and activities will be inward-focused ("just maintain what is") or outward-focused ("we invite people in and focus on growth"). A parishioner asked me the other day what my vision was for our parishes and the various decisions that were being made in this Pastoral Plan. My response was, "Grow."

As a Catholic community that is on-mission, we face plenty of challenges. Growing can be painful (just ask a teenager or toddler), but we can meet those challenges with Jesus, Mary, our patron saints, and each other. Being on-mission is an immense blessing. Walking with others as they discover divine grace and are transformed by Jesus is the most rewarding thing in this life. Will you join me and be a crucial part of our Catholic community in these new "missionary times"? Here is how everyone can be a part of the mission of the Church: 1) Commit to daily prayer. 2) Pray for renewal and spiritual growth in our Catholic Community and our Diocese.

Two final suggestions: 1) After each Mass, I encourage you to go out of your usual way and introduce yourself to one new person each weekend for the rest of 2026. Just take a few minutes to get to know their names and a little about them. 2) Attend Sunday (or Saturday evening Mass) at a location and Mass time that you don't usually attend.

THIS & THAT: "GIVE BACK TO GOD WHAT IS GOD'S" | In today's Gospel from Matthew 22:15-21, Jesus reminds us of the necessity of giving things their proper importance. The Herodians and Pharisees were giving too much importance to the issue of the payment of taxes. Jesus reminds them that loving and honoring God is of greater importance. The religious leaders in Jerusalem are trying to entrap Jesus by their questions about the payment of taxes. The Herodians and Pharisees approach Jesus, asking that he take sides in their dispute over the paying of taxes. From his first words to them, Jesus shows that he is aware of what they are trying to do. He asks to see a Roman coin asking them about the image on the coin. They agree that it is Caesar's image, so it belongs to Caesar. Avoiding their trap Jesus answers their question by saying, "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and give to God what belongs to God." The coin is stamped with the image of Caesar, and humans (you and me) are stamped with the image of God. Jesus is far more concerned about making sure that God gets back what belongs to God: that is what Jesus' mission is all about. We need to keep things in their proper perspective, to not attach ourselves to worldly things but to honor and love what we owe to God. With the elections right around the corner, we might ask ourselves if our political leaders demand of us that we should rightly give only to God? Although I take my political responsibilities seriously, I give my primary loyalty to God. We have the most to lose if we do not give back to God the things that are God's because our eternal happiness depends on it. Praying for each other this week, let us bring kindness and love to our little corner of the earth, Have a blessed week and stay healthy! – Sr. Yvonne Socktober – During the month of October we will again collect men's, women's and children's socks. We will distribute them to Sojourner's House & St. Francesca's clothing closet. Also don't forget to purchase a few non-perishable food items for the food pantry. Bring your items to church and place them in the basket in the back of church. Thank you for your continued generosity to the food insecure.

Notre Dame

Notre Dame Parish & Children's Trust Funds – Please keep these two funds in mind for your wills and estate plans. They are a great way to help the parish financially and to support our young people's Catholic education. Contact the parish office for info on how to contribute or to apply for assistance for Notre Dame children's needs and education, including tuition assistance for 4K & for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, if not qualified for the Wisconsin Choice program.
