THIS & THAT — CHOOSE THE BETTER PART | We read the Gospel of Luke today where Jesus is continuing his journey to Jerusalem, but stops in the village of Bethany, the home of his friends, Mary, Martha and Lazarus. Martha is busy preparing for a meal, while Mary sat at the feet of Jesus, listening to him speak. Martha complains to Jesus that Mary should help her serve the meal. Jesus gently chides her saying that she is worried about many things. Jesus says that Mary has chosen the better part, and it will not be taken from her. Jesus reminds Martha that the better part of life is being together and loving one another and that it is not about the table trimmings. Jesus accepts Mary as a disciple, which highlights a theme of the Gospel of Luke, namely the great concern of Jesus for women. St. Luke puts this story right after the parable of the Good Samaritan from last Sunday. He seems to be telling us that we need balance. We need to do good things for others and that we also need to take time just to sit at our Lord's feet and communicate with him. What about our busy lives today? One of the good things we are called to do is to slow down, to sit at Jesus's feet and pay attention. Prayer is not doing all of the talking. It is also listening. Like Mary, let us choose the better part. We can accept and appreciate the gifts God has given us and welcome Christ wherever and however he visits us this week. As we choose the better part, let us pray for each other. Have a blessed week!

Holy Ghost

Faith in Action Please give to St. Francesca food pantry this summer. When shopping, pick up extra non perishable food items to donate. Bring items to church and place in our donation bin. Money donations are also welcome. Put your donation in an envelope, label it SFRC, put it in the collection basket. Thank you for your continued generosity to our food insecure.

Fall Festival: Please start bringing in your silent auction and small raffle donations. Don't forget to drop your change or dollars into the donation bucket in back of the church. All monies collected through the year go into a jar for people to bid on. Information is in the pews regarding our festival. Please look it over and volunteer at one of the booths. We need many volunteers to make this Festival a success. We also have our donation leaves on the tree in the vestibule. Please pluck a leaf, purchase the donation request and drop it off in back of church or at the rectory during rectory hours. We appreciate any donations you may have for us. Thanks, Festival Team!

From Fr. David Nowicki

How good and pleasant it is when brothers dwell in unity! This is the first verse of Psalm 133, and it is a stark contrast to the way the priesthood has been lived out in the past forty years. Far too often, the response to having fewer priests to attend to parishes has been to spread priests thinly, so the greatest number of parishes can have their own resident pastor.

The sentiment is understandable, and the principle of having as many parishes as possible support a dedicated pastor is a noble one given the current situation. However, the reality is that with greater distance between priests, priests have become more isolated from each other. If, as we hear at the beginning of Genesis, "It is not good for man to be alone," then the arrangement of each priest in his own rectory, while perhaps beneficial to parishes in the short-term, leaves priests without their brothers to readily share in the vocation of the priesthood through mutual prayer, camaraderie, support, and accountability.

The original arrangement when our three parishes were united under a single pastor in 2021, with the pastor residing at Notre Dame and the associate at Holy Ghost, was probably necessary to make the initial adjustment, but having a young priest living on his own for his first assignment out of seminary is not a viable long-term solution. I recognized that this setup was not good for me or the parishes, as I was often perceived to be working alone rather than united with the pastor. Bishop Battersby recognized this issue and rightly desired a change in priestly living, starting with pastors and associates. He asked Fr. Sedlacek and I to live in common for the reasons stated above, to which we emphatically agreed. Consequently, this is the first official weekend that I am residing at the Notre Dame rectory with Fr. Sedlacek, having moved there this past week. We priests cannot give what we do not receive ourselves, and if the Lord is calling the Church to deeper communion, then we priests are called to priestly communion.

-Fr. David Nowicki
